Guided by my teachers, artisans from the industry, and my own initiative, I will strive to do my best in making my school, state, and nation better places to live.

I will accept the responsibilities that are mine. I will accept the theories that are supported by proper evidence. I will explore on my own for safer, more effective methods of working and living.

I will strive to develop a cooperative attitude and will exercise tact and respect for other individuals.

Through the work of my hands and mind, I will express my ideas to the best of my ability. I will make it my goal to do better each day the task before me, and to be steadfast in my belief in my God and fellow Americans.

Goals of Technology Education

Because technology is an integral part of the American culture, it is necessary for schools to provide students with and appreciation and understanding of the role and dynamics of technology in our society.

Technology springs from the human abilities to reason, solve problems, create, construct, and use materials imaginatively. The study of technology, integrated into the school curricula, promotes the development of these abilities and prepares students for a fulfilled and responsible adulthood.

Technology Education goals at the elementary, middle, and high school levels, focus on students acquiring specific abilities and perspectives.

1. Through the used of tools, materials, and the design and technology process, student learning at the elementary level will be enhanced and contribute to overall personal development and technological awareness.
2. Students at the middle school level will gain a greater understanding of technology’s role in contemporary society, including future career opportunities and related programs of study.
3. Technological skills and knowledge attained by students at the high school level will yield occupational readiness, consumer awareness, and personal enrichment.
4. Student members of TSA will develop leadership skills, pride in work well done, and high standards of technical ability, scholarship, and safety.

TSA inspires students to RESPECT the dignity of technology in our society. Members learn to cooperate in order to obtain quality results in individual and chapter activities and projects.
