

Texas Technology Students Association Code of Behavior

1. Teachers/advisors will assume full responsibility that delegates abide by the Texas TSA dress code and code of behavior at all times including travel to and from conference.
2. All participants shall behave in a courteous manner and refrain from language and/or actions that could bring discredit upon them, their school and/or TSA. Participants should wear name badges at all times except in sleeping quarters.
3. Participants shall be fully clothed at all times outside of living quarters. This includes movement between rooms.
4. Participants agree not to consume or have in possession any alcoholic beverages or non-prescription narcotics, gamble, smoke or use other tobacco products during the conference.
5. Any conduct that is not conducive to an educational conference will not be tolerated. Examples of unacceptable conduct include, but are not limited to, disrupting a businesslike atmosphere, consorting with non-conference individuals or any activities which will endanger self or others.
6. Participants are expected to attend all general sessions. Participants shall keep their advisors informed of their activities and whereabouts at all times.
7. Participants shall observe the curfew hour. It is the responsibility of the teacher /advisor to ensure compliance with this article.
8. Participants shall refrain from all types of roughhousing including dropping articles out of the windows. Participants understand that girls' cabins are off limits to boys and boys' cabins are off limits for girls unless an advisor is present. Chapters found in violation will be asked to leave.
9. Participants shall respect the camp property of which they are a guest and will pay for any property damage or loss that occurs due to their stay during the conference.
10. Participants shall not use portable stereos or other loud music making devices outside their rooms and will keep the volume low while they are in rooms. It is hoped that each student attending the conference will take this Code of Behavior with a positive attitude so that technology education in Texas will continue to have the respect of education, business people and the general public.
